3.8 Contractor's Obligation on Work Methodology.

- a. During a mix design, contractor should assess the aggregate, Polymer Modified Bitumen Emulsion, water, mineral filler, and other additives' compatibility to ensure the project's success.
- b. All material components – aggregate, Polymer Modified Bitumen Emulsion, water, and additives – must individually be tested and satisfy the work requirements and testing standards.
- c. To make sure that micro-surfacing is applied correctly, a contractor needs to be aware of temperature and humidity levels and wind conditions. All three impact the amount of time required for water additives and field materials used during construction.
- d. Before loading the mobile support unit, screen the material that will be used. This way, you can prevent any contamination when re-handling it.

- e. All necessary repairs – Pothole Repairs need to be done prior to the Application of Layer of Micro-surfacing.
- f. When filling ruts or low spots, it is impractical to measure the material needed. So do not specify an application rate for a levelling course when laying one down, as you may not know how much material would be required.
- g. Inspections are integral to ensuring that a job is done correctly. When the materials change, conveyor seals and emulsion pumps have been replaced, ask for a recalibration by the contractor on-site to increase quality control within their workmanship.
- h. When applying the crack sealing material, ensure that it is not too thick. If this happens, micro surfacing paver tires and spreader box runners can pick up some of the excess sealants and carry it onto other areas intended to be left clean.

A Field Laboratory / QC Lab will be situated in Base Camp for quality control and routine testing as per frequency mentioned in Section 900 of MoRTH Spec./IRC: SP-81/IRC: SP-100.

9. Laying of Micro-Surfacing

9.1 Weather and Seasonal Limitations

Laying of Micro Surfacing shall not be undertaken, if either the pavement temperature or air temperature is below 10°C. However, during a dry spell, Micro Surfacing may be laid in rainy season also, even if the surface is wet but there is no stagnant water on the pavement.

9.2 Surface Preparation prior to Micro-Surfacing

The underlying surface on which the Micro Surfacing is to be applied shall be cleaned of all loose material, mud spots, vegetation and extraneous matter and shall be prepared and shaped to the needed profile. It is essential to pre-treat cracks on the pavement surface with an appropriate crack sealing material prior to application of slurry seal, if it is used for preventive/ renewal treatment. The surface should be swept clean by removing caked earth and other foreign matter with wire brushes, sweeping with mechanical brooms and finally dusting with air jet or high pressure water jet or other means approved by the Engineer.

9.3 Application of Tack Coat

Concrete Pavement, Tack coat of polymer modified micro surfacing emulsion at the rate of 3.00 Kg/Sqm. shall be applied after thorough cleaning of surface by pressure distributor.

9.4 Micro Surfacing Paver/Machine

The machine shall be specially designed and manufactured to lay Micro surfacing. It shall be self-propelled equipment, truck mounted, consisting of following sub-assemblies used to manufacture and simultaneously spread these mixes on the surface:

- (i) Aggregate bin
- (ii) Filler bin
- (iii) Water and Emulsion Tanks
- (iv) Additive Tanks
- (v) Aggregates and filler conveyors to supply the mixer box
- (vi) Pump or compressed air system to supply the emulsion/water
- (vii) Mixer Box
- (viii) Spreader box to place the mixed slurry on the job

9.5 Calibration of Machine

Micro Surfacing laying machine shall be calibrated for flow of all the constituents as per the job mix in presence of Engineer. No machine shall be allowed to work on the project until the calibration has been completed and accepted by the engineer. 2 kg samples of Micro Surfacing mix will be taken and verified for proportioning and mix consistency. The verification for application rate shall also be carried out in presence of the Engineer. The procedure for calibration and verification is as given in Appendix 7 of IRC: SP: 81-2008.

9.6 Application of Micro Surfacing.

As per MORTH Specification Clause No. 512.5.5 The Application of Micro-surfacing will be followed.

A calibrated Micro Surfacing machine, as per requirements of job mix, shall be used to spread the material. The surface shall be pre-wetted by fogging ahead of the spreader box (if required under hot weather conditions). The rate of application shall be adjusted during the day to suit temperature, surface texture and humidity. The mixture shall be agitated and mixed uniformly in the spreader box by means of twin shafted paddles or spiral augurs fixed in spreader box. A front seal shall be provided to ensure no loss of the mixture at the road contact point. The rear seal shall act as final strike off and shall be adjustable. The spreader box and rear strike off shall be so designed and operated that a uniform consistency is achieved to produce free flow of material to the rear strike off. A secondary strike off shall have the same adjustment as the spreader box. The spreader box shall have the suitable means provided to side shift the box to compensate for variation in pavement geometry. Sufficient amount of material shall be always carried in all parts of spreader box so that a complete coverage is obtained. Overloading of the spreader box shall be avoided. No lumping, balling and unmixed aggregates shall be permitted. No streak, caused by oversized aggregates shall be left on the finished surface. Longitudinal joints shall correspond with the edges of existing traffic lanes. Other patterns of longitudinal joints may be permitted if pattern will not adversely affect the quality of finished surface. In case streak is formed, it shall be corrected immediately by fresh material and with use of squeegee. Longitudinal joints, common to two traffic lanes shall be butt joints with overlap not exceeding an average of 60-100 mm. The mixture shall be uniform and homogeneous after spreading on existing surfaces and shall not show separation of the emulsion and aggregates after setting.
